

I've Got Questions: Who is God?

(Isaiah 6:1-8)

Opening Discussion: A.W. Tozer wrote in The Knowledge of the Holy, "What comes into our minds when we think about God is the most important thing about us." What do you think about this quote?

Big Idea: When we truly come to _____ who God is, we _____ our sin and we know we need a _____.

1. God is _____.
(Isaiah 6: ____ - ____)

For further discussion: What does Isaiah's vision reveal about who God is and what He is like? Read the passage again, what do you feel when you read such a vivid vision of God? (See also Revelation 4:1-11: How does John's vision in Revelation 4 compare to Isaiah's in Isaiah 6? How does John's vision help to clarify God's plan to deal with the sinfulness of man?)

2. God is _____.
(Isaiah 6: ____ - ____)

For further discussion: Why do you think Isaiah's first thought is that he's a dead man? What does this teach us about how we should approach God in his holiness? (See also Exodus 33:18-23: What does this passage add to our understanding of how we approach God in our sinfulness? Does your own sin break your heart?)

3. God is _____.
(Isaiah 6: ____ )

For further discussion: Considering Isaiah's initial response to God, does God's desire to use him surprise you? After having His sin atoned for, how eager do you think Isaiah was Matthew 28:18-20: How does Isaiah's specific call compare to Jesus' call to all of His followers to go? How will you respond to Jesus' call?)
