

I've Got Questions: Can I Trust the Bible?

(2 Peter 1:16-21)

Opening Discussion: When someone says that they trust the Bible, what does that mean? Do you think it is all or nothing? Are there any parts of the Bible that you struggle to understand or believe?

The Question: Can I _____ the _____?

Big Idea: _____ the _____; _____ the _____!

1. Main Point #1 – It's hard to _____ with an _____.
(2 Peter 1: ___ - ___)

For further discussion: What does Peter say that he and the other disciples were eyewitnesses to? When you hear an eyewitness account, how trustworthy do you think it is? (See John 1:14: What does John add to our understanding of the disciples as eyewitnesses? Does 2 eye witness accounts convince you?)

2. Main Point #2 - If the Bible is right about _____, it's probably right about the _____.
(2 Peter 1: ___ - ___)

For further discussion: Peter's point is that the Bible at least gets Jesus right and that he can attest to that. Why is the whole story of Jesus so difficult for people to accept? (See Acts 17:1-3: how did Paul prove that Jesus is the Christ? How does this compare to what Peter taught about the scriptures?)

Response: Are you ready to _____ the Bible and live it as it points you to _____?
