Philippians 3:13-21

OPENING DISCUSSION

What is the earliest memory you have? What is your favorite memory? Is there a memory you wish you could forget?

SERMON

Did anything stick out to you about what Pastor James shared?

How does Paul bring his own story into what he tells the church in Philippi? How does his personal story give him credibility for them and us?

How do you feel about Paul telling us to imitate him? In what ways can we imitate Paul in “letting go and pressing on?”

APPLICATION

How much do your past successes and failures affect the way you live your life in the present and in the future?

When it comes to your past sins and failures, how difficult (or easy) is it for you to move on? Do they stifle you in any way?

When it comes to your past successes, how difficult (or easy) is it for you to move on? Do they stifle you in any way?

How much does your identity as a citizen of heaven motivate you to keep your eyes focused on the future?

How will you live out this passage in the coming week?

Transformed by Easter

But the angel said to the women,
“Do not be afraid, for I know that you seek Jesus who was crucified.
He is not here, for he has risen, as he said.
Come, see the place where he lay.”

Matthew 28:5-6

APRIL 4: Break Free from Sin

Romans 6:1-14 » What shall we say then? Are we to continue in sin that grace may abound? By no means! How can we who died to sin still live in it? Do you not know that all of us who have been baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death? We were buried therefore with him by baptism into death, in order that, just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, we too might walk in newness of life. For if we have been united with him in a death like his, we shall certainly be united with him in a resurrection like his. We know that our old self was crucified with him in order that the body of sin might be brought to nothing, so that we would no longer be enslaved to sin. For one who has died has been set free from sin. Now if we have died with Christ, we believe that we will also live with him. We know that Christ, being raised from the dead, will never die again; death no longer has dominion over him. For the death he died he died to sin, once for all, but the life he lives he lives to God. So you also must consider yourselves dead to sin and alive to God in Christ Jesus. Let not sin therefore reign in your mortal body, to make you obey its passions. Do not present your members to sin as instruments for unrighteousness, but present yourselves to God as those who have been brought from death to life, and your members to God as instruments for righteousness. For sin will have no dominion over you, since you are not under law but under grace.

APRIL 11 (Lord’s Supper): Break Free from the Past

Philippians 3:13-14 » Brothers, I do not consider that I have made it my own. But one thing I do: forgetting what lies behind and straining forward to what lies ahead, I press on toward the goal for the prize of the upward call of God in Christ Jesus.

APRIL 18: Break Free from what Others Think

Matthew 10:26-33 » So have no fear of them, for nothing is covered that will not be revealed, or hidden that will not be known. What I tell you in the dark, say in the light, and what you hear whispered, proclaim on the housetops. And do not fear those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul. Rather fear him who can destroy both soul and body in hell. Are not two sparrows sold for a penny? And not one of them will fall to the ground apart from your Father. But even the hairs of your head are all numbered. Fear not, therefore; you are of more value than many sparrows. So everyone who acknowledges me before men, I also will acknowledge before my Father who is in heaven, but whoever denies me before men, I also will deny before my Father who is in heaven.

APRIL 25: Break Free for Your Purpose

Romans 8:12-17 » So then, brothers, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live according to the flesh. For if you live according to the flesh you will die, but if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body, you will live. For all who are led by the Spirit of God are sons of God. For you did not receive the spirit of slavery to fall back into fear, but you have received the Spirit of adoption as sons, by whom we cry, “Abba! Father!” The Spirit himself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God, and if children, then heirs—heirs of God and fellow heirs with Christ, provided we suffer with him in order that we may also be glorified with him.
