

OPENING DISCUSSION

How do you feel about the world that we are living in?
What are some things that get you excited? What are some things that worry you?

SERMON

What does Peter remind his reader that God has done for them?

According to Peter, what is the purpose of the trials we face in life?

What will be the result of our faith in faithless times?

What does Peter say about what the prophets said about the coming of Jesus?

How do these prophecies from the Old Testament help us to have faith in faithless times?

APPLICATION

What do you most relate to about Peter's words to his readers?

Why is it sometimes difficult to see God's hand in our lives in the midst of our struggles?

Do you have a moment in life where God's love for you was so clear that it gives you strength in the present?

How do you view your trials in life? Do you allow them to draw you closer to God ... or do they draw you away from God?

How does the truth of the Bible give you confidence God will come through for us?

How will you maintain your faith in faithless times?

2. Remember that even when you can't _____ Jesus, He's still right _____ . (1 Peter 1:8-9)

3. Remember that God keeps His _____. (1 Peter 1:10-12)

RESPONSE:

When you go through _____ times, do you remember to turn to _____?
