Spiritual

Review Bible stories:

- New Testament, Creation, Adam and Eve, Noah Obeys God, and Joseph

Bible verse:

- Psalm 145:9

Social/Emotional

The kids have been learning about community helpers such as police officers, letter carriers, pastors, and farmers. By teaching about these jobs, the kids are learning information about different people who help keep our community safe and organized.

The kids are able to answer or ask any questions they may have about these community helpers. This helps them to better understand how our community operates and what responsibilities people have.

Physical

The kids will be doing different crafts throughout the week in the classroom. During this time, they will be coloring, painting, cutting, and/or gluing. This allows the kids to strengthen their motor skills.

Things to Know

- Teacher Appreciation Week is May 6-10. This week you can honor your teachers and recognize them!
- Save the date for Muffins with Mom! It will be on Wednesday, May 8. More details coming soon.

Social/Emotional

- the children will be learning that God made vegetables and they are very good for them. They help them grow big and strong. God gave us vegetables to keep our bodies healthy.
- vegetables grow in gardens and on farms. The kids can plant vegetables in their own backyard. They will also learn that some farmers grow vegetables on big fields.
- vegetables are a gift from God. Farmers and gardeners grow vegetables, but God made plants and seeds. We should thank God for them every day.

Physical

The children will act out being gardeners who dig up the soil and plant seeds. Some children will also pretend to be little seeds in the ground that start to grow as God sends the sunshine and rain.
