Social/Emotional

The kids will be learning about the terms groceries and garden and what they mean during circle time. During this time, they will learn that the various food items their parents buy at the grocery store are called groceries. This includes different vegetables, fruits, and snacks! They will also learn that some groceries are grown in a garden and students can have one in their own backyard!

Physical

The kids will be getting ready for our Thanksgiving Chapel and feast! They will be practicing their songs with their hand movements along with creating different decorations for our Thanksgiving feast!

Things to Know

Mark your calendars!

Join us at our Thanksgiving Chapel on Wednesday, November 16, at 9:30 AM, followed by a Thanksgiving feast afterward in Dodson Hall at 11:30 AM.

Social/Emotional

Our goals this week are to:

- give praise to each child for something he or she has accomplished during the week.
- familiarize the children with farm animals and learn about the responsibility of taking care and raising them.
- learn the importance of farmers to our community.

Physical

The children will act out the song "The Farmer in the Dell." During this time, they will follow the different dance moves and sing along.

They will also be playing a guessing game by making different farm animal sounds.
