Mission Statement

Our Lady of Mount Carmel Parish is a Christ-centered community in the Roman Catholic tradition. We try to share the Good News of salvation with others. As a diverse community, we value and respect individual differences. As God's people, we gather in the Spirit to pray, to celebrate the sacraments, to teach, to learn, to console, to rejoice, to minister and to renew our faith with one another.

When I was studying theology in the seminary, we had two courses on the Trinity. I did learn a lot in those classes, but in the end, I felt that it was impossible for a human being to truly understand the Holy Trinity, and that only through faith, prayer and contemplation could one come to a sense of the Mystery of the Blessed Trinity.

This central doctrine of our faith teaches that while God is One and indivisible, He exists and reveals Himself through three Divine Persons: the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. The Mystery of the Trinity is important for us, not because we can understand it with our minds, which as I said is probably not possible, but because it is through the action of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit in our lives that we are saved and brought into contact with the divine life of God. In other words, for us God is not some distant, alien and unknowable force. We believe as Catholics that God created us as an act of love, in God's "own image and likeness," and that God maintains forever a personal interest in every human being. The sin of Adam and Eve – disobedience – brought about a rupture in the harmony that had originally existed between God and his Creation, but God never abandoned his human family. He constantly sent Prophets into the world to remind and teach the people about their divine heritage. When the time was ripe, God sent his only Son Jesus, the Second Person of the Blessed Trinity, to completely share our humanity in order to redeem us from the Original Sin. Through Jesus, God at last revealed His inner life as Trinity. At the beginning of Jesus' public ministry, he presents himself to be baptized by his cousin John the Baptist. As he emerges from the water, everyone present hears the voice of God declaring "This is my beloved Son in whom I am well pleased." And then the Holy Spirit descends upon Jesus in the form of a dove. Toward the end of his life, Jesus commissions his Apostles to go out and teach others what he has taught them, baptizing the converts in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Finally, following his death and resurrection, the Risen Christ assures his followers that he will remain with them forever by sending down his Holy Spirit in his place. Last Sunday's Feast of Pentecost was the memorial of that event when the Apostles dramatically received the Holy Spirit and were then energized to preach the Gospel of Christ far and wide. We are the heirs of those same Apostles; we are the children of God the Father, saved by Jesus the Christ, and inspired by the Holy Spirit to carry on God's work in this world in order to win our reward in the world to come.

Pastor's Note

Cuando estaba estudiando teología en el seminario, tuvimos dos cursos sobre la Trinidad. Aprendí mucho en esas clases, pero al final sentí que era imposible para un ser humano comprender verdaderamente a la Santísima Trinidad, y que sólo a través de la fe, la oración y la contemplación se podía llegar a un sentido del Misterio de la Santísima Trinidad. Esta doctrina central de nuestra fe enseña que mientras Dios es Uno e indivisible, Él existe y se revela a través de tres Divinas Personas: el Padre, el Hijo y el Espíritu Santo. El Misterio de la Trinidad es importante para nosotros, no porque podamos entenderlo con nuestras mentes, lo que como he dicho probablemente no es posible, sino porque es a través de la acción del Padre, del Hijo y del Espíritu Santo en nuestras vidas que somos salvos y puestos en contacto con la vida divina de Dios. En otras palabras, para nosotros, Dios no es una fuerza lejana, ajena e incognoscible. Creemos como católicos que Dios nos creó como un acto de amor, a imagen y semejanza de Él mismo, y que Dios mantiene para siempre un interés personal en cada ser humano. El pecado de Adán y Eva - desobediencia - provocó una ruptura en la armonía que había existido originalmente entre Dios y su Creación, pero Dios nunca abandonó a su familia humana. Él constantemente envió profetas al mundo para recordar y enseñar a la gente acerca de su herencia divina. Cuando llegó el momento, Dios envió a su único Hijo Jesús, la Segunda Persona de la Santísima Trinidad, para compartir completamente nuestra humanidad y para redimirnos del Pecado Original. Por medio de Jesús, Dios por fin reveló Su vida interior como Trinidad. Al comienzo del ministerio público de Jesús, se presenta para ser bautizado por su primo Juan Bautista. Al salir del agua, todos presentes escuchan la voz de Dios declarando: "Este es mi Hijo amado en quien me complazco." Entonces el Espíritu Santo desciende sobre Jesús en la forma de una paloma. Hacia el final de su vida, Jesús ordena a sus apóstoles que salgan y enseñen a otros lo que él les había enseñado, bautizando a los conversos en el nombre del Padre, del Hijo y del Espíritu Santo. Finalmente, después de su muerte y resurrección, Cristo Resucitado aseguró a sus seguidores que permanecería con ellos para siempre al enviar el Espíritu Santo en su lugar. La Fiesta de Pentecostés del domingo pasado fue el memorial de ese acontecimiento cuando los Apóstoles recibieron dramáticamente el Espíritu Santo y luego fueron animados para salir y predicar el Evangelio de Cristo por todas partes. Nosotros somos los herederos de aquellos mismos apóstoles; Somos los hijos de Dios Padre, salvos por Jesucristo, e inspirados por el Espíritu Santo para llevar a cabo la obra de Dios en este mundo, y finalmente para ganar nuestra recompensa en el mundo venidero. Padre Ulysses
