

Teacher Residency Program

Become the best teacher possible by learning from the best!

EDCOE is excited to partner with Teachers College of San Joaquin (TCSJ) to offer a Teacher Residency Program.

This program will prepare the next generation of teachers through the best way possible - hands-on, experiential learning for one full year under the guidance of a highly-skilled mentor teacher in El Dorado County.

Resident teachers will work alongside a mentor for the entire school year while earning their teaching credential.

Applications Due:

April 15, 2024

Attend an online Informational Meeting

January 10, 2024 (4:30pm-5:30pm)

February 26, 2024 (4:30pm-5:30pm)

March 14, 2024 (4:30pm-5:30pm)

Scan or click HERE to RSVP and request meeting link

For more information:

Carolyn Parker, Director of Teacher Residency,
ccparker@edcoe.org | (530) 295-2466

Program Details:

- Earn your teaching credential in one year - Multiple Subject, Single Subject, Mild to Moderate Support Needs, Extensive Support Needs credential, or a dual credential
- Dual credentials are available for Multiple Subject & Mild to Moderate Support Needs or Single Subject & Mild to Moderate Support Needs
- Attend coursework online two days a week through Teachers College of San Joaquin
- 9-12 units count towards a Master's Degree in Education from Teachers College San Joaquin

Cost & Stipend:

- Tuition: Approximately $12,000 - Interest-free payment plan options & grant opportunities are available
- Residents will be given a $38,000 cost of living stipend

Eligibility Requirements:

- Possess a Bachelor's Degree (or higher) from a regionally accredited institution
- Meet Basic Skills Requirement (e.g. passage of courses in reading, writing, and math)
- Meet US Constitution Requirement
- Evidence of working towards completing Subject Matter Competence, e.g. CSET (by 12/24)

"Nothing makes a bigger impact on a child's schooling than their teacher."