President's Report:

Julie Watts motioned to approve the November 14, 2019 minutes, (Meghan O./Gina passed unanimously).

Principal's Report:

Julie reports on Shirley's behalf. After school robotics classes begin for 2nd-4th at the end of January and for 5th-8th graders at the beginning of February. PC STEM funds helped to pay for the Vex IQ Kits. STEM rotations begin in February for K-5th. We welcomed 3 new students this week bringing enrollment to 291. Registration for 20-21 for current families will begin January 27th -31st during CSW. Open enrollment will begin March 1st. Grandparents day is Friday, February 7th.

Teacher Report:

Brittany Enamorado says the teachers are really excited about the VEX Robotics program. She mentioned the teachers were really appreciative of how the boutique was run this year. Teachers are looking forward to the upcoming STEM rotations as they have money from B&G to work with for supplies.

Nativity Principal's Report:

Leslie mentions the christmas boutique changes went well on the little campus, fun to make the items with the kids. They busy during CSW, they are walking to the fire station, they have a visit from the WOODS humane society and they will not be participating in grandparents day.

Treasurer's Report:

Celeste reports that Jamba was up this quarter and pizza was about the same. Sales of OMS SWAG has brought in about $1,000 and the Christmas Boutique raised over $4,500.

Current Business:

- Sara Jones reports that we will be using Palo Mesa Pizza for Pizza Mondays, they are priced well for good pizza. Forms will go out January 10 and Pizza Mondays will start Feb 3rd.
- Bry reports that the Christmas Boutique went well and that Makers Mart/Movie night was successful. She mentioned they learned a few things for next year.
- Julie reports that PC has OMS swag for sale, hats are $25 and water bottles are $40. Swag has brought in over $1,000 this year and she plans to do another order later in the year.

New Business:

- Maria talks about the Blue & Gold Auction on March 7th. Tickets are $100 per person and there will be a VIP ticket. It is a 1920's speakeasy theme. Funds go towards STEM initiatives. She asks parent club for possible donations items for the live and silent auctions.

Meeting adjourned at 1:32 PM
