A. Sports Report: Mrs. Meinhardt

1. Basketball: Five of the teams made playoffs with three of the teams playing for the championships. 6th D3- Girls win, 7th D3 Boys win and 7th D1 Boys win first place.
2. Track: finished three meets, total of 44 athletes registered; divisional play-offs are May 1.
3. Cheer Competitions: two cheer competitions (Mercy, Notre Dame); we placed 1st at Notre Dame, 2nd at Mercy.

V. Old Business

A. Update on Covid Report: Mrs. Caruso and Mrs. Bandel

1. Cases have been down, although seeing a slight uptick this week. We will be reminding everyone to be extra vigilant (hand-washing and encouraging masks, especially with upcoming Spring Break travel). Our numbers are still low. We will send a reminder to parents to report any positive COVID results as soon as possible.

VI. New Business

A. Women's Club event at Celia's on March 7.

B. Men's Club Golf Tournament/Auction still on for June 3 @ Poplar Creek.

C. WASC/WCEA: Looking at updating our school's SLEs (Student Learning Expectations) (TIGER): a rubric is being created for achieving these awards; not just an academic award at graduation but also who exhibits these characteristics; creating a rubric so children can visually see what this means; update but not a major change. Work continues Chapter 3A through D: Chapter 3E through H; target date April 23.
